

AMERICAN CORNER-JESSORE Celebrated it's first Anniversary

The American Corner in Jessore celebrated it's first anniversary on November 21, 2006. One hundred local notables – including journalists, lawyers, and members of the governing board of the Jessore Institute – attended the day long program which included lectures, discussions and a photo exhibition.

Mr. Mobinul Islam, the editor of a well known local newspaper was the chief guest and Mr. Sheikh Rabiul Alam, the secretary of the Jessore Institute and the members of the host institute's governing body were among the special guests. All speakers commented on the importance of the American Corner to their local community and noted the role that the American Corner plays in supporting education in the region. Representatives of the Jessore Institute thanked the American Embassy for establishing the Corner in Jessore and promised their continued support.
